

International Association for Feminist Economics

21st IAFFE Annual Conference: Human Well-being for the 21st Century: Weaving Alliances from Feminist Economics

Facultat de Geografia i Història
Universitat de Barcelona

27-29 June, 2012
Barcelona, Spain

The 2012 IAFFE conference theme, "Human Well-Being for the 21st Century: Weaving Alliances from Feminist Economics", will be conducive to discussions on the effects of the global crisis as well as policy, action and alliances from a feminist economics perspective. In addition to regular presentations, we invite everyone to organize sessions and present papers analyzing the multiple aspects of the crisis and to shape feminist responses to the challenging questions facing the world today.

18th century embroidery from Lagartera (Toledo)

Traditional embroidery made by Spanish women reflecting ancient influences from Asia and Eastern Europe

Submissions:

Proposals must be submitted on-line via the IAFFE website. Submissions can be made for panels or individual papers. Participants are limited to one formal paper presentation and one panel discussion. Additional co-authored papers are allowed so long as they are presented by the other co-author. Please see the IAFFE website for detailed submission guidelines, as well as the limits for individual participation in panels and paper presentations.

<http://www.iaffe.org/pages/conferences/conference-archives/2012-conference-archives/2012-annual-conference/?preview>

Deadline for Submission: The deadline for submissions is February 1, 2012. Acceptances announced by early March.

Conference Site: The conference will be held at the Facultat de Geografia i Història, Universitat de Barcelona, Barcelona, Spain.

Travel Grants: Travel grants may be available; please see the IAFFE website for updated information.

For more information visit us at www.iaffe.org

If you do not have internet access, please contact IAFFE's conference coordinator, Brent Martin at 1.402.472.3372